Adults meet in the conference room. They are studying "Persons of Great Faith." This class is led by various people, and will cover the lives of people such as Martin Luther, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Ester, and C.S. Lewis. The children are continuing to have fun with Bible stories and games! They gather at the end of the hallway.

Prayer Bead Project

This summer, we are making 8-bead prayer bead "strands" for OLLC members and visitors. Beads can be plastic, resin, glass, ceramic, wood, stone, or semi-precious stone. Large beads (1/4 inch) are preferred and beads should slide on their string so we can transfer them to new cording. We can also recycle new or used keyrings (split rings) of various sizes. Metal charms will also be used. Contact Kari Boyce for more information.

WORSHIP NOTES

For Guests

Thank you for blessing us with your presence today! It is our prayer that you will encounter God's love in this place! We love to greet our guests and have them sign the guestbook, but we'll never point you out in worship or make you stand up. Please feel free to share as much or as little information as you like. Coffee, doughnuts, and lots of laughter usually happen after worship in the fellowship hall, which is located through the doors next to the coat racks. Please join us for this time also, Check out our web page for more information about who we are, how we live in the power of the trinity, and what we believe. OLLC.org.

Our time together for worship typically lasts at least an hour and fifteen minutes.

Our hearts are just too full of praise to limit ourselves to an hour.

If you have reason to leave a bit before we conclude, we won't judge you.

We are thankful that you joined us for the time that you did, and hope you will return!

About Communion

In the tradition of Jesus eating at the tables of all kinds, with all peoples, we practice Eucharistic hospitality, which means YOU ARE WELCOME. In tradition, this is Christ's meal of renewal for those who have been baptized and have received some type of instruction regarding the importance and holiness of being in communion with God. In scripture, Christ invites all to his table. You are welcome at Christ's table, and strongly encouraged to be in conversation with the pastor, and prayer with God, if you have not yet been baptized, or have been baptized but have not received instruction. Communion without baptism is incomplete. Children are welcome when their parents/guardians believe they can understand that this is a special time where they receive God's love. Until this time, children are offered a grape instead.

The simplest way to understand the manner in which we receive communion is to watch the people who go ahead of you. It is easier to see than to read. As the usher guides you, take a glass from the tray, circle up around the altar and kneel or stand as you are able, receive communion, take a moment to pray if you wish, then leave down the side steps behind you and place your cup in the basket at the front row.

If you need grape juice, please indicate this by placing your hand over your glass as the chalice (the fancy cup) approaches.

If the steps are a challenge for you, you may stand at the base of the steps or stay in your place, and the servers are glad to come to you. If you stay in your place, please make sure to catch the attention of the usher.

Prayer Requests and Announcements

Prayer and announcement requests may be made by filling out a green card, found in the pew racks. Please use separate cards for announcements and prayer requests, and limit announcements to events concerning the mission and ministry of the whole congregation and save personal sharing for coffee hour; write legibly. Please fill out these cards at the beginning of worship. The ushers will pick them up during the hymn of the day.

GATHERING

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Let us rise as we are able. As we begin, all make the sign of the cross, the sign with which we are sealed at baptism.

In the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hid:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration
of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you
and worthily magnify
your holy name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we are captive to sin
and cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.
Amen

The presiding minister announces God's forgiveness:

In the mercy of almighty God,
Jesus Christ was given to die for us,
and for his sake God forgives us all our sins.
As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ,
and by his authority,
I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins,
in the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

HYMN OF THE DAY

#550

On What Has Now Been Sown

We give you thanks for your dear Son:

at the heart of human life;
near to those who suffer;
beside the sinner;
among the poor;
with us now.

We thank you, O God.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this in remembrance of me.

Remembering his love for us

on the way,
at the table,
and to the end,
we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We pray for the gift of your Spirit:

in the gathering;
within this meal;
among your people;
throughout the world.

Blessing, praise, and thanks to you, Holy God, through Christ Jesus,
by your Spirit, in your church, without end.

Amen

The presiding minister continues:

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy God, you alone are holy, you alone are God.

The universe declares your praise:

beyond the stars;
beneath the sea;
within each cell;
with every breath.

We praise you, O God.

Generations bless your faithfulness:

through the water;
by night and day;
across the wilderness;
out of exile;
into the future.

We bless you, O God.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

An assisting minister invites the assembly into prayer:

With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus,

Let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

Prayers reflect the wideness of God's mercy for the whole world - for the church universal, its ministry, and the mission of the gospel;

for the well-being of creation;

*for peace and justice in the world, the nations, and those in authority,
the community;*

for the poor, oppressed, sick, bereaved, lonely;

for all who suffer in body, mind, spirit;

for the congregation, and for special concerns.

Prayers of thanksgiving for the faithful departed may include those who recently have died and those commemorated on the church's calendar.

Each portion of the prayer ends:

Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

The presiding minister concludes the prayers with these words:

Into your hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray,

Trusting in your mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen

PEACE

The presiding minister and the assembly greet each other in the peace of the risen Christ:

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

We share a sign of God's peace with one another using the words:

"Peace be with you."

Let us be seated.

MEAL

OFFERING

An offering is gathered for the mission of the church, including the care of those in need. During this time, the table is set and the choir offers a gift of music.

After the offering is gathered, the assembly stands. Bread, wine, money, and other gifts are brought forward as the assembly offers their hearts in song.

OFFERTORY SONG

#486

God Extends an Invitation

After the table is set, the assisting minister leads the assembly in prayer:

Let us pray.

Merciful God, as grains of wheat scattered upon the hills were gathered together to become one bread, so let your church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, for yours is the glory through Jesus Christ, now and forever.

Amen

GREAT THANKSGIVING
